PLEASE WRITE PLAINLY, with unfading ink. Entries must be complete and correct as directed on the other side. Physicians: please write the causes of death clearly and legibly. Answer all questions, and if any cannot be answered write "unknown" or "none" so as to indicate that no question has been overlooked. Do not abbreviate. Write out the full name of the street or locality. The space for "Cause of Death" must be filled in, even for stillbirths and deaths of infants, and must show the cause for which a physician would issue a certificate. Indefinite terms, such as "heart failure," should be supplemented by the primary cause, if known. Do not report symptoms. Causes of death only should be entered. Deaths from violence must state the means of injury and whether accidental, suicidal, or homicidal. Deaths of women from any accident, disease, or complication of pregnancy, childbirth, or abortion must be so reported. Deaths of infants must be reported as to cause, and the words "stillborn," "premature birth," or "congenital debility," alone are not sufficient. Deaths from contagious diseases must be reported at once by telephone or telegraph. Burial or removal permit cannot be issued until a certificate of death has been filed with the registrar.
